

9-2-5; 11-4

One-Act Play Production

Grade Level	Ninth
Minimum Time Required	270 Minutes Preparation 90 Minutes to Evaluate and Present
Materials/Resources	Paper, Pencil and Props Video Camera
Subject Area(s)	Language Arts, Guidance, Social Studies, Computers

Project Description:

1. In a group setting, students are asked to write, direct and produce an original one-act play involving gender stereotyping or biases in educational programs occupational settings.
2. In addition to the planning of such a task, students must investigate the presentation of specific characters, considering stereotypes and cultural norms.
3. The final project is presented first to the class and then to the general public.

Career Development Standard	Skills to interact positively with others. Understanding the continuous changes in male/female roles.
Career Development Indicator	Identify courses appropriate to tentative occupational choices. Demonstrate how to express feelings, reactions, and ideas in an appropriate manner.
Delivery Level	Introductory Review Mastery
Academic Standards
Language Arts	2.1.a apply complex conventions of language in written work. 2.1.b use varied, extensive vocabulary and accurate spelling in written work. 2.2.a analyze and use appropriate organization based on the established writing purpose and intended audience. 2.2.b. evaluate and use appropriate writing style based on the established purpose and intended audience. 2.2.c analyze and use the writing format required for a specific type of publication. 4.1.b deliver oral information in a logical, organized, and coherent manner. 4.3.b create an effective listening environment to engage audiences in a variety of situations, e.g., seating arrangement, podium position.
Social Studies	1.3.b analyze the values and belief systems found within various groups and cultures.
Employability/SCANS Skills	Basic Skills, Thinking Skills, Interpersonal Skills
Assessment/Rubric	Students will be evaluated on the presentation rubric and peer critiquing

Submitted by: Lennox School District